

Law360's 2021 Consumer Protection Editorial Advisory Board

Law360 (March 24, 2021, 6:48 PM EDT) -- Law360 is pleased to announce the formation of its 2021 Consumer Protection Editorial Advisory Board.

The editorial advisory board provides feedback on Law360's coverage and expert insight on how best to shape future coverage.

The members of Law360's 2021 Consumer Protection Editorial Advisory Board are:

Kyle R. Dull, BakerHostetler

Kyle draws on extensive experience investigating and prosecuting privacy and advertising law violations to advise clients on their own privacy, cybersecurity and advertising risks. As a former prosecutor, he has a solid understanding of consumer protection laws, enabling him to educate clients on compliant digital asset management and privacy strategies.

Avery Halfon, Lieff Cabraser Heimann & Bernstein LLP

Avery Halfon is a litigator in Lieff Cabraser's New York office specializing in novel consumer class actions. His cases have successfully subjected national banks to state consumer protection laws, defeated major telecoms' attempts to force arbitration, and won more than $200 million for clients.

Betsy A. Miller, Cohen Milstein Sellers & Toll PLLC

Betsy A. Miller is chair of Cohen Milstein's public client practice, a consumer protection litigation practice dedicated to representing state attorneys general and major cities as their outside counsel for civil law enforcement actions. She represents multiple states in their litigation against the manufacturers and distributors of prescription opioids.

David I. Monteiro, Morgan Lewis & Bockius LLP

David Monteiro is a partner at Morgan Lewis and a former Federal Trade Commission Bureau of Consumer Protection attorney. David works with financial institutions, retailers and other companies to help them comply with state and federal consumer protection laws, respond to examinations and investigations, and defend against governmental litigation.

Amy Ralph Mudge, BakerHostetler

Amy Ralph Mudge, co-leader of BakerHostetler's advertising, marketing and digital media team, is a Chambers USA-ranked regulatory lawyer. She represents top-tier companies before the FTC, the National Advertising Division and the Children's Advertising Review Unit, as well as in private, federal and state class action defense, consumer protection and antitrust litigation.

Janine Pollack, Calcaterra Pollack LLP

Janine Pollack co-founded the women-owned law firm Calcaterra Pollack with partner Regina Calcaterra in the midst of the pandemic. She has been a class action litigator for almost 30 years and has prosecuted cases that have secured hundreds of millions of dollars for defrauded investors and consumers.

Stacey Slaughter, Robins Kaplan LLP

Stacey Slaughter is a partner at Robins Kaplan with 20 years of experience in complex antitrust, commercial and financial litigation cases. The cases she has litigated have recovered more than $1 billion for victims of anti-competitive conduct, fraud and negligence.

Steven Wernikoff, Honigman LLP

Steve Wernikoff co-leads Honigman's data, privacy and cybersecurity group. Steve is a former officer and senior enforcement attorney with the FTC, and draws on more than two decades of experience in both the private sector and public service to represent entities in a broad array of industry sectors.
